Dons Meet Sacramento In Playoff Game!!

E. C. PHILLIPS DIRECTS DRAMA CLASS IN PLAY FOR ASSEMBLY TODAY

Music Conservatory Sends Musicians To Play For Junior Collegians

GIVE FAMOUS ACT

Hendrickson, Olsen, Flynn, Van Syoc And Arundell Chief Characters

Entertainment of the highest character will distinguish the assembly to be held today at 1 o'clock in the auditorium when a play, given by the drama classes of Ernest Crozier Phillips will be presented.

The characters in the play have been rehearsing for several weeks and the product is declared by critics to be one of the most finished this year. The name of the presentation, which cannot be divulged, has drawn capacity audiences all over the United States and had a great success in Santa Ana some time ago. The students taking part are Ada Marie Hendrickson, Gene Olsen, Francis Flynn, Alvin Arundell and Verl Syoc, all experienced thespians. Scenery effects planned by the stage crew will enhance the play, it was understood this morning.

Besides the dramatic act, the Santa Ana Conservatory of Music will present some numbers, chiefly by junior college students. It was not known at a late hour who was on the Conservatory program, but it is understood that at least three Dons were playing.

Y. W. Supplying Baskets For Poor

Chairman and members of the social service committee of the Y. W. C. A. are hard at work supplying baskets for needy families and Miss Marion Parsons, chairman, stated that it was her intention to supply baskets throughout the year and not just before special holidays as is usually done. Two baskets were given out the day before Thanksgiving. These contained nuts, apples, jams, jellies, canned fruit, and other necessities.

Near Christmas time it is the committee's intention of putting on a program for the patients of the Orange County Hospital and also for the detention home in Santa Ana on First street.

In December the Y. W. and Y. M. are planning joint dinners which will take place at the Methodist Episcopal church on French and Sixth streets. The Reverend Mr. Earl P. Cochran of the Highland Park Presbyterian church and who has just returned from a trip abroad is to be the speaker of the evening.

LIONS FORCED TO POSTPONE PARTY

Because of the football game at Sacramento this Saturday, the Junior Lions-Bachelor party has again been postponed. The affair at the Norconian club will be Friday, December 13.

As soon as the game was scheduled, Stewart McPherson, Junior Lions president, put off the dance for the third time, so that it would not conflict with the football team in any way.

At a meeting Monday night, the Junior Lions began to formulate plans for Junior Lions week. This week is to be that from January 6-

Student Center Plans Completed

Following an inspection of the new student center, located in the northern part of the campus at the front of the school the Executive Board accepted plans presented by Stewart McPherson, president of the Junior Lions, Monday evening.

The center is to encircle several of the largest evergreen trees and bordered by a six-inch curbing, it will have a ground coat of three and one half inches of gravel. A faucet now in the site is to be replaced by a drinking fountain.

In the southernmost part the bulletin board will be located. Benches are to be distributed throughout, providing shady retreats for students during the hot days. McPherson's plan to build the curb in a series of connecting arcs so that it will partly encircle bordering trees.

The plans submitted must be accepted by the school board before any action can be taken.

Football Train Hired For Game

Enthusiasm over the Sacramento football game aroused the student body of the Santa Ana junior college to such an extent that more and more students were signing up for the special train which will carry the team and rooters to the northern city.

The Southern Pacific quoted a very low fare of $15 for the round trip, which does not include berth and meals. A large number of students had expressed their willingness to go yesterday and at a late hour today, for every 15 students, another coach will be added to the train. Rates for berth both ways will come to $4.50, and will be in the tourist cars.

The caravan will go to Los Angeles via the Pacific Electric Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and leave that city at 6:30 p. m. The arrival in Sacramento will be 9:10 a. m. Saturday and the train will leave at 5:30 p. m. the same evening for Los Angeles, arriving in the neighboring city at 8:30 a. m.

Padres Bid For Game After Defeating Fullerton On Thanksgiving Day

By Lawrence Heide

Sacramento junior college, winners of the northern and central California junior college conferences, will play hosts to the Santa Ana junior college, Southern California champions next Saturday afternoon on the Sacramento turf. The game will decide the state Jaycee championship, the Sacramento Panthers having won every conference game to easily cop the northern flag while the Dons have well earned the Southern California championship with only one defeat against them.

The game was officially sanctioned Tuesday and both colleges are highly in favor of the scrap, eager to win more and more glory. The team, consisting of some 28 players with Coach Bill Cook, and manager Dale Fuller will entrain at 3:30 p. m. Friday for the Capital city. Berths for each player have been reserved and also meals have been arranged for. Saturday morning the squad will take a light workout and then rest for the

Breakfast Club Elects Officers

Ed Adams was elected president of the Breakfast club at the business meeting held just before the discussion Sunday morning.

Other officers chosen were Fred Humiston, vice-president and Bill Crawford secretary-treasurer. The members were asked to be thinking about who they would like to have for song leaders, a position which Mr. Fisk is filling at the present time, but which he stated that he would be very glad to relinquish.

President Adams appointed a committee to draw up a constitution for the organization. Members of the committee are Fred Humiston, Dave Cherry, Abbott Mason and Roy Arnold.

It was decided by those present that the club would have a full page in the Algor this year. The cost of this will be met by assessing each member twenty-five cents.

Shea Shell Shocial Club Plans Outing

Preparation for the annual Shea Shell Shocial steak bake, honoring the boys of the 1A chemistry department, will be completed next Wednesday night at the regular business meeting of the club, held at the home of Miss Marion Parsons, 106 East Chestnut street, at 7:30 p. m.

The membership of this organization is confined to girls and once every year before the Christmas vacation, they entertain the boys at a party.

According to the announcements made recently by Miss Parsons, the picnic is to be held at Irvine park on the evening of December 13.

Ad Manager Wanted

Due to the resignation of Business Manager Don Young, applicants for the position are solicited. Ten per cent commission is the salary which the manager receives.

Anyone interested in advertising is asked to try out for this job. Former experience is required. There are other positions open in the business department, not requiring experience, which afford an excellent opportunity to work up to management. Applications must be made immediately at the Don office.

Selling Date Set For Tavern Post

Those who have been anxiously awaiting the publication of "The Tavern Post" will be happy to hear that according to T. H. Glenn, head of the English department, "The Post" will be printed sometime this week and will be ready for distribution next week.

The printing date of the "Post" has been delayed longer than was first anticipated, on account of rush work that had to be done by the print shop.

Glenn stated that the "Post" will contain 48 pages and several pen and ink illustrations. It will be printed on a handsome quality paper and the cover will be of very unique paper.

The illustrating of "The Tavern Post" is being done by several students including Goldie Peale, Maybelle Ball, Geraldine Cole, and Abbott Mason. Miss Anna Gilles, art instructor, is in charge of the illustrators.

Fred Humiston is editor in chief of this year's first issue and Florence Caverly, Mary Ford and Dorothy Harman are associated editors. "The Post" is being published under the auspices of the Tavern Tatlers, a literary organization of Santa Ana junior college. "The Post" is to be published quarterly this year, and the contributions will be judged at the end of the year, for the awarding of several splendid prizes.

Girls' Quartet Sings For Teacher Meeting

Members of the Santa Ana junior college girls' quartet, under the direction of Miss Myrtle Martin, music instructor, presented the program at the Orange County Teachers Association meeting in the "Y" Hut Monday night.

Two quartet numbers, Cadman's "Indian Mountain Song" and an old favorite, "Annie Laurie" were presented. Member of the quartet are Katherine Kervin, first soprano; Frances Harper, second soprano; Audra Schmid, first alto, and Nada Hill, second alto.

A vocal solo, "Cradle Song," was given by Nada Hill with violin obligato by Katherine Kervin. "Resignation" by Fauconier was played as a violin solo by Katherine Kervin. Miss Martin announced that various public appearances will be made by divisions of the music department all through the school year. Quartet numbers given Monday were the first to be presented this semester.

Longfellow Show Scores Big Hit

Hailed as the greatest fashion show in the world, the presentation of the Santa Ana junior college Society of Longfellows in the college assembly last week set a record for hilarity and humor.

Fifteen boys, all over six feet, gathered together for a lawn party garbed in dresses and other feminine apparel. As each student paraded on the stage, gales of laughter filled the auditorium. Ed Adams, the hostess, was giving a lawn party for Sammy Griswold, a Boston debutante. Joe Warner helped with the affair in entertaining the society women. A mysterious announcer, shouting in the top of the auditorium, added to the show, as did the draping of many curtains in front of the set.

A "hula" dance by George Paddock, a musical skit by Paddock and Warner and a vigorous reading by Bob Squires were hits on the program. Enlivening the affair, Charlie Greenleaf and John "Sky" Dunlap, clad in nightshirts, rolled dice on the stage and played other childish pranks.

Those appearing in the show were Bob Squires, Bill Crawford, Ed Adams, Ernest Stump, Charles Teas, Joe Warner, Alvin Arundell, George Paddock, Elmer Whistler, John Dunlap, Charlie Greenleaf, and Kenneth Tanaka. Much credit is due Miss Clara Kate Owens and Miss Florence Brownridge who helped the club put on the show.

An important club meeting is scheduled for today at 3 o'clock in the A. S. B. office.

BACHELOR PLEDGES SURVIVE TEST

Ten pledges and one honorary member were given their final initiation into the Brotherhood of Bachelors, Saturday night at Laguna Beach. McKee Fisk, dean of the junior college, was the honorary member taken in.

Facts of the actual initiation would not be revealed by Chet Page, grand exalted ruler of the brotherhood, but it was hinted that the paddle was again prominent.

Five of the alumni were present. Ray Lindman and Eddie Gerhardt were down from Stanford university while "Red" Edwards, Lawrence Minge, and Rod Smiley were the other alumni present.

At the rally Wednesday night, Art Beddoes was scheduled to make his

Plan Forest Home Retreat For Y. M.

Forest Home, one of the prettiest spots in Southern California, is to be the scene of the next Y. M. C. A. retreat to be held Saturday and Sunday, December 14 and 15.

Bill Reinhardt is in charge of financial arrangements for the retreat and anyone planning to go should pay him the two dollars fee for eats and transportation.

According to Lawson Watkins, there is nothing definite known about the program for the two days but it is going to be good.

All who are expecting to go should sign up on the bulletin board this week if possible as those in charge should know just how many to provide for.

The retreat is to be held at San Geronimo lodge, one of the largest in the resort. There are plenty of beds but each person is requested to take his own bedding and plenty of it as there is usually snow present at this time of the year.

debut, but evidently he got "cold feet" and failed to show up.

After the initiation was finished, the party was turned into a business meeting. Plans are being made by the Bachelors to sponsor a football banquet, after such a successful gridiron season.

Today is "bachelor sabbath," and all the regular members plus the newly made brothers will be required to take part and shun the fair sex.

Eleven were scheduled to get the final degree, but Orville Schuchardt, failed to show up, consequently his final degree is still coming. Those receiving the final degree were Rod Chamberlain, Art Beddoes, Crawford Nalle, Warren Schutz, Verl Van Syoc, Carl Planchon, Al Kluthe, Bill Crawford and Jack Dutton.

Dons Beat Fullerton For Title

Pass Thrown After Final Gun Sounds
Breaks 13-13 Tie With Fullerton
To Give Dons First Championship

By Charles "Tex" Teas

Coach Bill Cook and his Santa Ana junior college football squad are at last rewarded for their untiring efforts by defeating the Fullerton Yellowjackets 19 to 13 for the Southern California junior college conference championship last Thursday afternoon before a capacity crowd of 5,000 people. The most sensational play of the game took place as the gun sounded ending the game. A pass from Garlock to Sweetnam was completed over the goal line for the winning touchdown. It was by far the most spectacular play of the season.

The game was easily the most thrilling ever staged on the local field with the trend of things changing entirely at the beginning of the second half.

The Dons were greatly outplayed during the first half. Fullerton scored a touchdown early in the first period by means of a couple of short passes, and again in the second quarter, thus leaving the locals on the short end of a 13 to 0 score as the first half ended. It looked as though all of Santa Ana's championship possibilities were gone. The Fullerton team was going like it couldn't be stopped and from the opposition the Dons had offered it looked as though the Yellowjackets were going to hand out another trouncing as they've done for the last five years. Scarcely anyone held hope for the Cookmen as they had been outplayed in every department of the game during this tragic first half.

Then came the beginning of the second half and with it came a determined Santa Ana football team. The Dons were a changed outfit as they realized what was before them in the last two periods of this championship game. The fighting spirit was instilled throughout the Don ranks and their confidence reigned supreme as they were determined to smear that swarm of Yellowjackets. The line charged to perfection with every man doing his part, Captain Hylton leading the attack and continually cheering his men onward. The Fullerton team was unable to make any headway on either offense or defense. The Don backfield was up to the best form with Garlock and Dutton carrying the ball for substantial gains, through and around the Yellowjackets line, and with the aid of a beautiful pass from Garlock to Warner put the ball on Fullerton's one yard line. Dutton hit the line twice and went over on the last attempt for a touchdown. Tim Wallace booted a beautiful goal to make the count 13-7 as the third quarter ended.

The crowd went wild and cheered the fighting Dons onward to another touchdown tying the score 13-13. The touchdown came after a sustained drive from their own 20 yard stripe to the Yellowjackets goal line. Wayne Garlock made several beautiful runs which finally netted the tying six points. Wallace's boot went wide.

Then came that never-to-be-forgotten finish. The Dons were really fighting and were determined to win the battle although only a few minutes were left to play. Fullerton received the ball but were forced to kick after Hal Dunham had smeared Phillippi for a loss. Garlock took the punt on his own 29 yard line and on the first play tore off 15 yards around right end. Dutton hit the line twice for 7 more, Garlock making it first down on Fullerton's 45 yard line. A pass from Garlock to Warner was incomplete. Garlock fumbled losing one yard. Santa Ana called time out. Three minutes left to play. A pass from Garlock to Sweetnam gained 8 yards. Dutton hit the center of the line for 3 yards making first down. Garlock then cut loose around left end for a spectacular 20 yard gain, putting the ball on Fullerton's 10 yard line. Again Garlock hit the line for 6 yards. Dutton smashed through

Boys Basketball Season Is Opened

Junior college boys' basketball practice was officially started Tuesday night when Coach Bill Foote met the prospective members of the squad in the gym.

Practice will be held from 7 to 9 o'clock at night each night of the week except Saturday and Sunday. Aply captained by little Jack Sweetnam the Don hoopsters are looking forward to a very successful season.

The schedule has not yet been definitely completed because of various new schools coming into the conference. It has been rumored that Santa Monica J. C. and the schools from the Eastern Division will join into one loop and each school draws certain opponents.

center for three more yards. Garlock made it first down by making a yard through right tackle, putting the ball on Fullerton's one yard line.

The crowd was wild and cheering madly, as the Dons were waging a battle never before seen on a local field. Garlock tried to skirt the left end, but was thrown for a no gain. On the next play the gun sounded as the ball was snapped, but the play was completed, a short pass over the goal line from Garlock to Sweetnam, who made a wonderful catch of the pigskin to win the game 19-13, and for the first time in history the Southern California junior college championship for Santa Ana junior college. The crowd swarmed out on the field and had to be driven back to allow the try for extra point. Wallace's kick was blocked.

Sacramento Overwhelms San Mateo Thanksgiving Day To Cinch Northern And Central Division Championship

game which will be called at 2:00 o'clock.

The game will be played in the new Sacramento stadium and will more than likely draw a much larger crowd than the Dons have been accustomed to play before. In last Saturday's game with the San Mateo J. C. which decided the northern champion, the Panthers drew a crowd of 12,000 spectators. While the Dons in their title tilt with Fullerton Thursday could only accommodate 5,000 people.

Coach "Hack" Applequist of Sacramento has one of the finest Jaycee squads in the state with a team averaging well over 170 pounds to the man. The Panthers have defeated such teams as the College of Pacific, Oregon State Normal, San Jose Teachers College, Modesto J. C. and San Mateo J. C. In a pre-season conflict they lost to the Stanford frosh by a one point margin, the score being 7-6.

In their last game they defeated the strong San Mateo J. C. eleven by a 33-20 score, thereby, copying northern honors. In this game the Panthers made 16 first downs to 15 for the San Mateans. In the second quarter Sacramento scored 4 of their 5 touchdowns while San Mateo scored all three of theirs in the third period. This shows that the Dons will possibly have an edge on defense while the Sacramento eleven has shown greater scoring ability, having scored 198 points to 166 for the Dons thus far this season.

In Tony Donadio, diminutive quarterback, the Panthers have one of the classiest ball carriers in the state. Donadio has scored 84 of his teams 198 points this season. During the San Mateo game he was credited with three tallies, making 45 and 70 yard jaunts for two of them. Donadio also drop kicks, punts and passes better than the average J. C. player.

Brett, husky halfback also does quite a bit of the ball carrying, having scored 66 points this season.

Brown, fullback and Rothwell, halfback form the rest of the backfield. Brown also passes very well and is the source of most of the deadly passes from which Donadio scores.

In the line Coach Applequist has many veterans and stars. Captain Oliver Pope at left tackle is the main stay of the Panther squad. Pope is ably assisted by Happe, guard, and Rake, center.

Of these men, Sacramento placed five on the all-conference team in Donadio, Brett, Pope, Happe and Rake.

In spite of the high powered record shown by the northerners, Coach Cook and Captain Hylton feel confident that they are capable of bringing the state title to Santa Ana. As matters look now, Sacramento is a one man team with Donadio acting as the "sparkplug". If this is true, "Beware Sacramento"! Remember what happened to Fullerton's so-called one man team.

The Dons with a timely string of victories themselves, should give the northerners a good run for their time and money.

Al Kluthe lanky Don center and Ed Adams end, were the only ones injured in last Thursday's game. Adams will no doubt be ready for service by Saturday, but Kluthe's condition is doubtful. Al pulled some muscles in his leg, but he is progressing rapidly and will probably see plenty of action.

Ridder-Robb Nuptial Observed Last Week

Only members of the couple's families and intimate friends were at the church last Friday evening when Louis Ridder, well known Santa Ana junior collegian, and Miss Evelyn Robb, former student of the local college, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Robb of this city were united in marriage. The marriage ceremony was read by the Reverend W. S. Buchanan, of the church.

The bride wore a charming afternoon frock in black and eggshell shaded satin, and carried a shower bouquet of white rosebuds. She was given away by her mother, Mrs. Robb.

Mr. and Mrs. Ridder are now at home at 843 North Ross street. Miss Ridder graduated from Santa Ana junior college last June, and has since been prominent among the younger set of this city. Mr. Ridder will graduate next June, and plans to attend the University of California at Berkeley.

Playing their first outside game, the girl's varsity basketball team came in contact with the Fullerton J. C. team Monday, and were defeated on a score of 42 to 29. Although this was only a practice game, keen competition issued between the two teams.

During the first quarter it looked as if the local donas were asleep and before they woke up 19 points were up against them. In the second better team work took place and although Fullerton still had the lead, they were more effectively squelched.

It was in the last half that Santa Ana finally managed to regain her old stride. Harman was up on her old form and the team work between Harman and Hurd was very good. Goodrich at center showed up well during the last half.

Fullerton had excellent pass work, their main fault being progress with the ball. Stull, forward, and Quinn side center played a very good game.

Many Colleges To Attend Asilomar Conference

Santa Ana "Y. M." To Send Delegates
To Annual Conference At Asilomar;
Scheduled December 26 to January 2

"I want to linger, a little longer
Where the ocean breezes blow,
I want to stay here and always play here

Where the taller pine trees grow."
Asilomar, where the sea and the mountains meet, one of the few places in the world where three contending tides meet, with over 60 acres of playground including tennis courts, swimming pool, volley ball courts, golf links, basketball and baseball grounds, a temperature which never varies more than ten degrees the year round: In such a scenic wonderland, the Y. M. C. A. will hold its annual Asilomar conference from December 26 to January 2 with over 300 representatives from the numerous colleges of the southwest
United States expected to send "Y"
members to the conclave.

Many Noted Lecturers Attending
During the weeks conclave approximately twenty noted religious and earned professors will conduct a series of instructive lectures before the gathering and in class groups.

Among some of the brilliant thinkers and learned men to appear at the conference are the following: Dr.
Charles W. Gilkey, dean of religion of the Chicago university. Dr. Gilkey, a lecturer, speaker, professor and clergyman, has taught in the leading universities of the nation and Canada. He is also author of two religious books, and also the International Commissioner of the Y. M.
C. A.'s in 1903-05. Dr. Thomas W.
Graham, clergyman, and educator is Dean of Theology of Oberlin College.
Dr. Graham has been a religious director at a number of the leading universities and has lectured at many student conferences.

Many other equally lecturers will conduct classes at the conclave.

A Day's Outline
The entire conference will be divided into classes of serious study of major concern of the delegates. Studies in economics, international relations, leaderships of boy's clubs will be held. Capable leaders will conduct the classes in lectures, discussion,
reading, interviews, conversational groups and recreation. The program will extend through the day until 5 p. m. the hours of music, dramas and fellowship.

After dinner each evening, there will be lectures in the Merrill Recreation auditorium. Throughout the stay inter-collegiate games will be held.

Local Y. Furinshes Transportation
According to George Warner,
president of the local college "Y" association, transportation will be furnished to all those contemplating making the trip.

The expense of the conference
meet is exceptionally reasonable.
Board and room plus all expenses will amount to but $18, which will include the registration fee also. Every Don intending to go should see George Warner or Lawson Watkins immediately.

Art Department Is Called "Busy Shop"

"Energetic group" would be the keynote, according to Miss Anna Gilles, art instructor, in a recent interview in regard to the activities of the art department. She exclaimed,
"We're a busy shop. That's all we are."

Few realize the great amount of work the art department turns out for the school.

Miss Gilles in naming over different pieces of work carried on by the art department outside of class mentioned especially the making of posters for all student affairs, including large posters for the physical education department. Many of the designs for dance programs and invitations which have been used for social functions of the year have been made by art students. The illustrating of the "Tavern Post" is another project being handled by several of the art students.

Speaking of the class work Miss Gilles stated, There is a certain amount of work each class must accomplish. This work is intended to give students the underlying principles and fundamentals of composition." The 4A class is working especially for freedom in representation. The class in lettering plans to do some commercial work soon, by making posters for some of the stores. There are so many junior college students interested in commercial work that, according to Miss Gilles, a class may be formed next semester for the study of commercial art.

"We do anything from the daintiest water color studies to work in the heaviest kind of oil and varnish."

Only Four Jaysee Students Take Shop

"Only four students at Santa Ana junior college are taking machine shop work," stated C. E. Blacow, head machine shop instructor. "While at Fullerton junior college, where I instruct in the evenings, twenty-seven college students take the course."

"A knowledge of tools is essential to every man who desires to qualify for executive positions, in large enterprises," according to Blacow.

"Here in the shop," he further stated, "we first teach the boys to do accurate bench work with hand tools. They make paper weights, book ends and wrenches. When they have learned how to use their tools, they are instructed in the use of power drills and grindstones. When the students have learned to drill holes to the accuracy of one one thousandth of an inch they are placed at elemental forge work."

"With the help of constructive criticism from emphasizers the shop departments of all the schools in California are seeking to standardize their methods of teaching so that when the student leaves school he will be prepared to get a job."

Max Appleby, Edward Meador, Willard Minor and Joe Teel are the four solitary mechanical arts students.

PLANE AIR

By Herman Hoch

Man's courage and ingenuity have subdued nature's fiercest elements.
The globe promises to be man's speedway!

A synopsis of progress: In 1519 Magellan circled the globe in three years and 29 days. In 1913 John Mears using trains and boats made a trip around the world in 30 days.
The U. S. army fliers circled the globe in 363 hours actual flying time.
The Graff Zeppelin completed the trip in 21 days, 7 hours and 20 minutes.

Flying has become so practical that insurance companies are insuring students for full coverage. Commercial airlines show that travel has increased in Germany seven million miles; in United States five million miles; France three million and England one million miles per year.

California has four huge airline systems extending their routes across the nation, namely: Transcontinental
Air Transport; Maddux Western Air
Express; Boeing system and Pickwick Airways. Other smaller units are the Standard Airlines, Continental, Nevada, Pacific Air Transport, Curtiss Flying Service and Aero Corporation of California.

All of the following use tri-motored planes with ten passenger capacity. The pilots are selected from the government air service who have had 2000 to 12,000 hours flying experience. These modern cruisers of the air are equipped with leather cushioned chairs, luggage racks, radios, moving picture machines, running water, rest rooms, and radio phones which enables the pilot to speak with stations two hundred miles away and other pilots.

Transcontinental Air Lines operate from New York to Los Angeles, this trip being made by air and rail in 48 hours in Ford all-metal planes.
Maddux carries the passengers to San Diego and San Francisco. This company is under the leadership of Charles Lindbergh and Miss Amelia

Features, Novelties In Christmas Don

Novelties and features will characterize the special Christmas Don which will be issued on December 18,
the day before vacation. This issue of the Don will take on a different form and be of an entirely new style.

One of the featured additions will be the articles written by some of Santa Ana junior college's faculty members. Mrs. Jennie L. Tessmann, Mrs. Ellen Foote, and Walter Scott are among those who will contribute.

Published in magazine form, the Don will contain from 16 to 20 pages. The cover will be of an artistic colored mode. Many pictures

Western Air Express carries mail and passengers on their routes from Kansas City to Los Angeles, also flying from Salt Lake and San Diego to Catalina island. Fokker mono-planes are used.

Boeing System is one of the longest routes in the world covering 3,000 from Chicago to Seattle and Los Angeles. This company carries mail and passengers. The Boeing company manufactures its own planes and supplies the government air services with fighting planes.

Pickwick Airways travel from San Francisco to Los Angeles and as far south as Guatemala, South America.
Bach planes are used. These mono-planes are manufactured in Burbank, California. The Bach holds the altitude record of 22,000 feet with a ten passenger load.

Statistics reveal that only one person is killed in every 800,000 miles of air travel which is a better record than that of railroads. Aviation is here to stay and progress.

Air Gliders

Probably one of the greatest sources of practical education in flying technique can be obtained by the use of a glider. Hundreds of communities are forming glider clubs for the training of future aviators. There are innumerable air enthusiasts eager to study aeronautics, but haven't the necessary capital to buy an airplane. Gliders may be bought or made for as low as $150.

The National Glider Association
fosters annual contests and offers prizes amounting to thousands of dollars. The results have brought forth some exceptionally fine records.
For distance flight 600 miles have been reached and the endurance record is 15 hours. A glider weighing but 160 pounds can carry a load of 500 pounds which is better than one pound to a square foot of a wing 46 feet wide. San Diego and Long Beach are promoting much activity in this new sport.

and illustrations will be found throughout, also numerous display ads. There will be a little up-to-date news, and also much humor.

Last year's Christmas issue was met with great approval by students.
It was edited by Ray Lindman. A futuristic motif added to its attractiveness.

Fullerton And Santa Ana Informal Collegiate Dance Held Thanksgiving In Andrew's Gymn Brilliant Success

Youth reigned supreme in both victory and defeat in the informal collegiate dance given by the Dons in honor of their long time rivals the Yellowjackets, in the gaudy decorated Andrews gymnasium on Thanksgiving evening.

What a glorious affair it was!

Never before has there been such a genial crowd of young folks eluding such a supreme reign of youthfulness in their gliding movements
over the waxed floors. Emotions succumbed to soothing music of the inviting orchestra. It was an elaborate success, as everyone will vouch.

The college social commissioner, Miss Clara Kate Owens more than succeeded in uniting the colleges after one of the most hectic and sensational football frays ever witnessed on the local turf.

Gym Gaily Decorated

In the setting of a football field
the gym was the reminiscence of the fray that everyone had just left. To each end of the floor were the goal posts; one drabbed in blue and gold and the other with colors of red and black. Above each of the goals was the score of each of the teams.
In the center of the floor high in the college colors of the Yellowjackets and the Dons. From this assembly streamers penetrated the corners and goal posts. Hanging on the wall to one side of the floor was a huge score board with a clock and numerals for downs and quarters.

Football Warriors Spirits Appear

Miss Leck's dancing class entertained during the intermission with a fantasy football game.
Members of the group were: Miss Francis Larrabee, referee; Mary Louise Wallace, maid; Louise Ward, Mary Ford, Lavinia Compton, Corinne Nelson, Esther Guyton, Eleanor Metzgar, Margaret Westover, Mildred
Staples and Elsiebell Hurd.

Five New Members Join Beta Gamma

Five new members were voted into Beta Gamma society at a dinner-business meeting held recently at Ketter's cafe, according to the announcement made by Miss Dorothy Harman, secretary of the club.

During the business session, a resolution was passed raising the eligibility standard of the Beta Gamma society to 20 grade points in the past semester. Requirements for membership in this organization are participation in extra curricular activities.
It is based entirely on scholastic achievements.

Students to be elected into the society were George Warner, Abbott Mason, Baxter Geeting, Miss Virginia
Thomas and Miss Mary Ford.

Assisting Miss Clara Kate Owens
were, Miss Florence Brownridge, decoration chairman; Miss Ada Marie Hendrickson, favors chairman assisted by Bill Crawford.

OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

THE CHAMPIONS

Yellowjackets' weight went down to defeat at the hands of Don fight. The Santa Ana-Fullerton game was a case of one team conquering another by sheer grit and fighting spirit. The Fullerton bugaboo has nearly caused Santa Ana to develop an inferiority complex—the affliction which Anaheim high school has borne for years but the Thanksgiving day game has demonstrated that Santa Ana can produce championship teams and is forging her way to the front among junior colleges.

Many times defeat by a rival school becomes almost a tradition because the defeated school thinks it can't win whether or not it has the stronger team.

Plans for the student center seems to be on the decline. If we don't have it in a couple of years now, we'll forget we wanted one. Maybe the school board and the Junior Lions can't agree on who is to finance it. We wouldn't object if they combined resources.

DEBATING

Don debaters meet the Los Angeles junior college team for the first round of the season Friday evening, December 6. Let's see that at least two or three college students attend. About 98 per cent of the associated student body doesn't even know that Santa Ana has a debating team.

BARBERS OR BARBARIANS

From the looks of the recently initiated the Bachelors must have held a scalping party in conjunction with the initiation Saturday night. Unmistakable bald spots at least indicate a healthy shearing. Hats will be in vogue here this winter.

RIVALS

It is a pleasure to see Junior Lions and Bachelors on good terms this year, having only a spirit of rivalry between them. Both are organizations instituted to serve the school and can do so only by cooperation. Last year's petty squabbling is too disgusting to even speak about.

The Santa Ana alumni don't forget their alma mater—they always come back. Among the Thanksgiving visitors was Ray Lindman, last year's editor of the Don. Ray was one of the best editors the Don has ever had and his guiding hand piloted the paper safely through some pretty stormy weather.

TURKEY DANCE

A sun-kissed bowl filled with humanity welcomed the teams of two rival colleges in a fray that meant the movement of a lotta hard earned pensions or money saved from milky way bars. The odds were two to one that it would not rain.

The supposition that Darwin was right was of a most convincing manner in regard to the fence climbing artists that surmounted the barriers of both ends of the fields.

Perhaps one of the most enthusiastic group of turkey filled mummies that prevailed in the crowd (previous to the last half) was the Don rooting section.

An impersonation of Will Rogers happened to sit nearby in the form of a kiddo in his teens. A burly overgrown peasant shouted for the yearling to sit down, that is "down in front." (Oh yeh, that reminds me—this seemed to be one of the best yells that the Dons had). The nimble-witted youth retorted that he was made in a glass factory.

Again this fertile-minded brain child sprung another one. The Dons seemed to have lurched into the battle with some vim. The yearling shouts "Well this looks like it is going to be a necking party, after all."

One young girl wanted to know if a barber college was playing, she had heard the umpire broadcast that there was a penalty for "clipping." Pigskins have not been able to attract greater attention, than in the form of football—except under the disguise of ham.

Turkeys may claim the day (Nov. 28) but pigskins draw the gate receipts.

According to the analysis of one young intelligisimo of his favorite football backfield man, who did not live up to expectations was that, "he moves too long in one place."

There is nothing slow at a football game except the score board and the last five minutes.

A late comer arrived during a hectic scrimmage and asked if Solomon Hoyvitch was on the Green eleven. His answer was this, "The eleven in on Solomon right now."

Football players found more scrimmage to penetrate through on the gymnasium dance floor than they did the entire game in the afternoon. They probably covered more yards than Red Grange did in his entire football career.

Stags owned more of the dance floor than those dancing—it's about time the W. A. A. commences to date up some of these lonesome "willies".

Nothing brings back youth faster than a mass of blowers and horns among dancers. All the leather-lunged sons and daughters were just "kids".

Collegiate dancing must mean original dancing for there were several different "twists" used in the "merry-go-around" on the gala night.

SOCIETY

Keen times! Banquets! Dinners! Dances! Shows! Here are some of them.

Following the game with Glendale junior college several students including Betty Cleary, Ernest Stump, Betty Wiswall, Rod Smiley, Margaret Gaebe, Blanchard Beatty, Dorothy Harman, and Abbott Mason went to dinner and the Orpheum in Los Angeles.

Marion Parsons spent Saturday and Sunday last week with Enid Bowles at Scripps' college, while Emma Tannenbaum stayed with Wilena Bell at Pomona college. The girls attended the rally Friday night and saw the Pomona-Occidental game Saturday.

Mary Blakeman visited Eleanor Cruickshank at Pomona also, seeing Pomona-Occidental game Saturday, the play "Sun-up" Friday night, and a show in Pomona Saturday night.

Mildred Staples attended a private dance in Tustin, Saturday night, November 23.

Catherine Walbridge, George Warner, Maysel Spicer and Robert Chapman saw "Rio Rita" at the Carthay Circle following the game at Glendale junior college.

Nellie Sackett had an unusual time last week end, excavating for remains of the "scraper-maker" Indians in an old Indian camp at Costa Mesa.

George Warner and Delmer Brown were among those who attended a banquet Friday night, November 29, in Anaheim.

June Arnold visited in Long Beach during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Katherine Spicer visited friends in Los Angeles and Pomona during the Thanksgiving vacation.

Willard White, past president of the associated students and Roy Grisett were back at Santa Ana junior college last week renewing old friendships.

Louis Romoff, Robert Chapman, and Eric Twist went to the Mojave desert to hunt rabbit during the Thanksgiving vacation, leaving Thursday night after the dance and returning Sunday.

MOVIE REVIEW

"THE COCK-EYED WORLD"

"The Cock-Eyed World", one of the best productions of the season is now being shown here in Santa Ana. It is a rip-roaring comedy starring Victor McLaglen, Edmund Lowe, and Lily Damita.

Everyone who has seen "What Price Glory" remembers distinctly those lovable characters, Sergeants Quirt and Flag. "The Cock-Eyed World" is a continuation of their adventures.

The story is laid in Europe and concerns itself with two soldiers of the Russian Expeditionary Force, Sergeants Flag and Quirt are excellent friends until they both fall in love with the same girl.

One of the interesting incidents of the production is when Miss Damita is forced to hide Mr. McLaglen because of the inopportune arrival of Mr. Lowe. The deception is discovered by the girl's mother who "kicks" them both out.

A strange thing concerning this picture is that you never know who is the favored lover, Miss Damita being successful enough to parcel out her affections impartially without the soldiers becoming "wise".

The picture terminates in an uproarious scene in which Flag and Quirt, rather than give up each other, give up the girl they both love and sail for home.

Victor McLaglen and Edmund Lowe are actors of superior ability and their impersonations of Yank "doughboys" are strong and true to life throughout the entire production. Miss Damita is also very good but she plays only a small part in comparison with McLaglen and Lowe.

Nor Since, We're Sure

NOTED STUDENT SKETCH

RODNEY CHAMBERLAIN

By "Sky" Dunlap

Unknown to himself, ye royal editor of The Don was selected for this week's dissertation on prominent students of the Santa Ana junior college campus and his history, past and present appears herewith for the edification of budding journalists.

The commissioner of The Don hails from Anaheim where he pursued a very peaceful career, specializing in journalism. Besides being sports editor, editor-in-chief of The Anoranco, he was editor of the Valencia Daily, official paper of the California Orange Show and chief of the Bach-o-Facts, publication of the Bachelors club, of which he was a member. Chamberlain served for two years on the high school annual staff, earned two letters on the tennis team and belonged to the Spanish club.

Upon entering the local college, Chamberlain was active on The Don. He was managing editor for two semesters and succeeded Adelaide Mueller this term as editor-in-chief. Last year, "Rod" was a member of the tennis team and has also held membership in the Society of Longfellow, Press club and recently received his final degrees in the Bachelors club.

Future aims are indefinite but journalism will probably claim him as a follower. Future educational institutions are also indefinite but it is understood that several nearby institutions will be considered. And how he punishes a typewriter—

JOKES AND OTHERWISE CRACKS

"Young man, this court studied the law before you were born."
"Yes, yeronner, but I have studied the law since then."

"And did you really go to Rome?" asked a guest.

"I really don't know, my dear," replied the hostess, just returned from a trip abroad. "My husband always bought the tickets."

Did you hear about the Scotchman who put his wife's false teeth in his pocket because he caught her eating between meals.

Skookum: "Who was your wife quarreling with last night?"
Squeedunk: "Oh, er-ah, she was scolding the dog."

Skookum: "Poor beast. I heard her threaten to take the front door key away from him."

Mother: "Elmer, did you see brother eat anything that would make him sick like this?"

"No, mamma. All I saw him eat today was the rains off the fly paper."

Lack of Tact

Mrs. Diggs: "Henry, the food at this hotel is awful."
Mr. Diggs: "Yes, and just to think that we dined out for a change."

Jack: "We bought futuristic furniture a couple of weeks ago and I just found out that I've been sleeping on a bookcase all this time."

Don: "Do you serve any pie here except that aeroplane kind?"
Waitress: Why, what kind do you mean by that?"
Don: "The kind with flies in it."

Customer: "Do you object to shoppers who buy nothing?"
Proprietor: "Not at all, it does no harm to keep the clerks in practice."

Why do the Scotch enjoy basketball? They like the free throws.

Alphonso: "I've been thinking—"
Magsworth: "I told mother you were acting funny."

Leonard Morris: "Do you know why your hair has electricity?"
Frances Brown: "No, why has it?"
Leonard: "Because it is attached to a dry cell."

Teacher: "What are the two greatest menaces in the world today?"
The new student: "Halitosis and dandruff."

A JINGLE

I have walked in summer meadows
Where the sunbeams flashed and broke,
But I never saw the cattle,
Or the sheep or horses smoke.

I have watched the birds with wonder
When the world with dew is wet,
But I never saw a robin
Puffing at a cigarette.

I have fished in many a river
Where the sucker crop is ripe,
But I never saw a catfish
Puffing at a briar pipe.

Man's the only living creature
That blows where'er he goes,
Like a blooming traction engine
Smoke from out his mouth and nose.

If God had intended he'd smoke
When he first invented man
He would have him on A widely different plan.

He'd have fixed him with a stovepipe
And a damper and a grate,
And he'd have had a smoke consumer
That was strictly up to date.

THOSE FEATURES

"Hey, I've got something for you. Yes, I mean you."

And then comes the biggest surprise of my life (which I had been expecting all the time, but hoping against it), a nice little assignment for a feature. Can you feature it? And if there is anything I hate to write it is one of the pleasant little features of about five or six inches. And if there is anything I hate to write worse than a feature, it's two features, and so there you are.

And so here I was with that pleasant assignment of about six inches (if I wanted to make it longer it would be perfectly all right), and not a thought in my head. At this moment my lifelong friend pops up and says, "That isn't a bit unusual, it isn't even worth mentioning."

And then all of a sudden I got an idea, and what I mean it was a good one, and so I dashed madly out to the Don office to type it, and lo and behold, when I got there and had my typewriter all fixed and started to write, my marvelous idea had left me. I guess it had hid from loneliness, I can't think of any other reason and there I was again without an idea. And so I sat there and thought and studied and then thought some more and I really was trying hard to get an idea. What I mean I actually was searching my brains for something to write for this marvelous paper of ours. And so I just had to get an F for that week's work because I simply could not seem to arouse an idea.

Quite a Let Down

She: "I'm off Jake."
She: "Why?"
She: "He said we were going to look at a diamond and—"
She: "My dear! How lovely! and—"
She: "And we ended up at the ball park!"
